

Okewa Garret

Okewa Garret began his dance training at age 12 at the Traci Hall Dance Studio in his hometown of Philadelphia, PA. There, he studied Ballet, Modern, Jazz, Tap and Hip Hop. He later furthered his training at the Philadelphia High school for the Creative and Performing Arts (CAPA) under the direction of Ladeva Davis. Okewa has trained at some of the most prestigious schools of dance; including Philadanco, The Joffrey Ballet and the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater as a Fellowship student. Okewa is a former principle dancer with the Eleone Dance Theater, and was a guest artist with the Rebecca Davis Dance company. He has had teaching and performance opportunities throughout the U.S., Europe, and Africa.

In 2010, Okewa had the chance to dance on tour with the some of the music industry's biggest artists, including Monica on Trey Songz' Passion Pain Pleasure Tour. Mr. Garret has also performed with Jennifer Lopez, Beyonce, Ruben Studdard, Vickie Winans, The Grammy Award winning gospel legends the Dixie Hummingbirds, and toured with former Destiny's Child member Kelly Rowland on Chris Browns F.A.M.E. Tour as one of six motivators/backup dancers. Mr. Garrett has showcased his dance talent in numerous music videos that can be seen on major networks, the film, "Leave It On The Floor", as well as being recognized for his first place Competitive Hip Hop winning choreography. Currently, Okewa lives in Las Vegas, NV. performing in the LEGENDARY Jubilee Show on the Las Vegas Strip at Bally's Hotel and Casino. Okewa is also delighted to embark upon a new journey as being the founder and owner of "Slay the Stage" Dance Apparel.
